

Harriet Butterfield

Description

Harriet Butterfield is a barrister of twenty years call with over fifteen years experience in the construction and engineering sector advising and representing a variety of clients in construction and engineering, energy and utilities on the full breadth of transactional and contentious matters.

Her clients in the construction sector include employer and contractor organisations in the residential, commercial and infrastructure sectors. When the need arises, she has extensive experience in all forums of ADR including representing clients in over two hundred and fifty adjudications and three arbitrations.

Publications & Articles:

Why Amending The JCT Forms Of Contract Is Not For The Faint Hearted!